TOLBERT RULES

October 9, 2025

(The phrase "OTICCC" means the Original Terlingua Championship Chili Cookoff when stated in these rules.)
THE FOLLOWING RULES APPLY TO ALL SANCTIONED LOCAL COOKOFFS AS WELL AS THE OTICCC IN TERLINGUA. RULES SPECIFIC TO OTICCC IN TERLINGUA ARE TO BE FOUND AT THE END.

I. RULES FOR CHILI COMPETITION

A. COOKOFF REGISTRATION AND CHILI CUPS PICKUP

1. The Head Cook or their designee must register (name, address and e-mail or phone #) at Cookoff Headquarters to enter the chili competition (only one cup may be submitted per registered cook.)
2. The Head Cook or designee will draw their judging cup and initial for receipt at Registration, Head Cooks Meeting or as determined by Cookoff. Remove the numbered ticket from the cup, print your name on the back and put in a safe place. Winners will be announced by this number and the matching ticket must be presented to claim the award.
3. Cooks must not "mark" the cup in any way. If a cup is marked or damaged, a replacement can be obtained from Headquarters by turning in the damaged cup and both matching numbered-tickets.
4. If a ticket is lost prior to turn-in time, a replacement may be obtained from the Referee by turning in the original cup and ticket that the Referee will destroy.
5. If a Cook must leave before announcements, they should give their ticket and address information to the Referee. A winning cook must arrange to have their trophy delivered.
6. Cooks must be at least 18 years old to enter a cookoff.

B. PREPARING CHILI RULES

1. Chili must be cooked onsite on the day of the cookoff from scratch. "Scratch" means starting with raw meat and spices. Commercial chili powder is permissible, but complete commercial chili mixes (such as Wick Fowler 2-Alarm Chili Mix) are NOT permitted.
2. Chili must be prepared out in the open in as sanitary a manner as possible.
3. No beans, pasta, rice, whole peppers, large pieces of vegetables, inedible objects, etc. are allowed.
4. The Head Cook must prepare the chili to be judged.

C. TURNING IN CHILI RULES

1. No more than one judging sample may be taken from any one pot of chili.
2. At turn-in time, fill your cup as designated at the Cooks Meeting (or fill to within one inch of the top of the cup) and take it to the Cookoff Headquarters. Late cups will not be accepted.
3. Your chili will be judged on AROMA, CONSISTENCY, RED COLOR, TASTE and AFTERTASTE.

II. FRANK X. TOLBERT SECRET JUDGING SYSTEM - CHILI

A. CREATING JUDGING CUPS

1. Use Identical Cups (suggested size 16 to 24 oz. Styrofoam) with lids and numbered tickets attached with tape to the outside of the cup, with a correspondingly numbered ticket placed either inside the cup or if using double tickets, tape down one ticket where the second one can be torn off by the Cook. (Be watchful that the side of the ticket with the number is not the side applied to the tape.)
2. Cups should not be kept in any order. Store in large containers to prevent damaging the cups. Always make up extra cups.

B. TURN-IN AND JUDGING CUP NUMBER PROCEDURE

1. As cups are turned in for judging, have workers collect the cups in large containers.
2. After all the cups are turned in, workers will randomly remove the cups and using a permanent marker mark the cup with a Table "Letter" and Number in sequential order. (Example: 45 Cooks; 3 Preliminary Judging Tables - "A", "B", and "C"; therefore, cups are marked A-1 thru A-15, B-1 thru B-15, and C-1 thru C-15) Continue this process until all cups turned in are properly marked and taken to the appropriate judging tables.
3. No chilis will be accepted once cups have been randomized.
4. The cup judging number must be changed at each stage of judging -- using a different color marker.

C. CHILI JUDGING PROCEDURE

1. The official Tolbert judging sheet must be used. If a Cookoff Chairman wishes to add information to the chili judging form, it must be approved by the rules committee.
2. No one should be in the judging area except the judges for the current round and officials running the judging or as allowed by the Referee. Cooks may watch the judging, but from outside the judging area.
3. Judging will be done using preliminary and final judges, and when necessary, semi-final. When there are twenty (20) or fewer chilies to be judged at a cookoff, it is permissible to eliminate the preliminary judging stage and proceed directly to final judging. If more than twenty (20) chilies are turned in, refer to the Referee Policy to handle the situation.
4. It is permissible to draw a portion of the Preliminary Judges from head cooks or other cooking team members. This should be done by using a random drawing rather than pre-selection or a "sign-up to judge" list. Judges shall be at least eighteen (18) years old. Each table should have at least five (5) judges.
5. Final and semi-final judges shall not have been judges in any previous level of chili judging. Final judges shall not be associated with any cook at that given cookoff and shall abstain from tasting any chili prior to judging. The suggested number of final judges is nine (9) or more, but no fewer than six (6).
6. In judging, a minimum of four (4) chilies must come off each preliminary table (preferably one half of the chilies on the table) and go to final judging. In large cookoffs, when this creates too many chilies on final tables, semi-final tables should be used. Judging should be divided among the tables so the final table will end up with preferably no more than twenty (20) chilies, but not fewer than fourteen (14).
7. Each table must have a Table Monitor to control the movement of cups and answer questions. Refer to the Table Monitor Instructions in the Cookoff Packet. Discussion of the chilies will not be permitted. Any questions as to disqualification of a cup of chili will be directed to the Referee by the Table Monitor for a final decision.
8. One score takes into consideration all criteria for scoring chili; the criteria being AROMA, CONSISTENCY, RED COLOR, TASTE and AFTERTASTE. Each cup is scored on its own merits from one (1) to ten (10); ten (10) being the highest score. Each Judge must enter a score for each cup of chili.
9. Judges must use a new spoon for each taste.
10. Judges may not re-taste chili after it has been passed to the next Judge. The Table Monitor should collect judging sheets and make sure that each Judge at the table has scored each chili. The total points from all Judges will determine the winner.
11. Judging sheets from each table must be tabulated, preferably by using a computer Tally Program, in the judging area to arrive at a total score for each cup of chili. The chilies having the highest scores for their table, within a predetermined number of chilies, will advance to the next judging level. Do not break ties within the predetermined number of chilies to be moved to the next judging level. They must all to be moved forward even if the number of each table is different.
12. A tie-breaking panel of three Judges may be used to break ties on the final judging table if necessary. If there are enough judges on the final table [nine (9) or more], at least three (3) judging sheets may be pulled at random before tabulation, for breaking ties. It is recommended that the completed judges tally sheets not be made available to cooks or others to avoid unnecessary confrontations about the scoring.

D. ANNOUNCING WINNERS

1. Winning chili numbers will not be revealed until the winner announcements begin. The top 10 (ten) chili winners must be announced in reverse order of their finish. The ticket from the outside of the cup will be removed and passed to the Announcer. Upon announcement of the ticket number, the cook must present their signed ticket to the Announcer to be matched with the ticket from the cup. A second person who has not cooked that day must verify the numbers match before the placing is official. The winner must ensure their name and address information is recorded on the Tally Sheet. Final and/or Semi Table ticket numbers may be announced after the top ten (10) chili and show awards are announced, either in random or specific placement order.
2. If a cook must leave before announcements, refer to rule I.A.5.

III. QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS TO COOK AT OTICCC

A. GENERAL QUALIFICATION RULES

1. The OTICCC "Chili Year" begins on October first (1st) and ends September thirtieth (30th) of the next year, for the following November's Championship, which is held the first Saturday in November in Terlingua, Texas.
2. Cookoffs sanctioned by CASI rules will entitle the Cooks to earn points or qualification for the Terlingua Championship, unless the cookoff rules were not followed.

B. CHILI QUALIFICATION-RULES

1. All former Terlingua Chili Champions (Tolbert and CASI) and Past ICS World Chili Champions are automatically qualified for life.
2. The second (2nd) thru tenth (10th) place winners at the Terlingua Championships (Tolbert and CASI) are qualified for the following year's championship.
3. The top three winners, regardless of place, who are residents of the state in a State Championship are automatically qualified. Winners residing outside the State will receive points and first (1st) place will be automatically qualified.
4. The top three winners, regardless of place, who are residents of the state in a Men's State or Women's State Championship are automatically qualified. Winners residing outside the State will receive points and first (1st) place will be automatically qualified. States must have at least twelve (12) cookoffs in the previous chili year to be eligible for automatic qualification. Only a man is eligible to cook at the Men's State cookoffs and only a woman is eligible to cook at the Ladies State cookoffs.
5. The top three (3) winners at Regional, Open and International Championships are qualified if the cookoff has at least twenty-five (25) cooks.
6. First (1st) place red chili winners at ANY sanctioned TOLBERT, CASI, and ICS Cookoffs with at least 15 cooks are automatically qualified.
7. The top ten (10) winners at the Very Last Chance Cookoff held during the week of OTICCC are automatically qualified. Only cooks not qualified prior to OTICCC are eligible to enter. See rule VI.F.1 for more details about the cookoff.
8. The required number of points to qualify in each state is based on the number of cookoffs held in the state the previous chili year.
States having: 1 – 11 cookoffs require – 6 points
12 - or more cookoffs require - 9 points
9. The number of points awarded per place are: First Place - Five (5) Points
Second Place - Four (4) Point
Third Place - Three (3) Points
Fourth thru Tenth Place - Two (2) Points per place

IV. COOKOFF SANCTIONING RULES

A. COOKOFF REGISTRATION RULES

1. No Tolbert cookoff may be held on the same day at the same location as a CASI or ICS cookoff.
2. Cookoffs must be published in the Son of a Gap (an affiliate of the Goat Gap Gazette) or listed on the Tolbert web site at least thirty (30) days prior to cookoff date. The publication deadline date is the 20th. (Example: May events must be in the April edition, deadline for that is March 20th.) The Tolbert President may grant a "one time" exemption for a cookoff that did not make the deadline for publication. The event must be advertised locally. Proof of advertisement must be presented before the event is sanctioned. The exception would not be allowed for September events.
3. It is the responsibility of the Cookoff Chairman to obtain from the Son of a Gap, a packet (via mail or email), containing the "Tolbert" Rules and official forms. There is no charge for this packet.

B. COOKOFF RESTRICTIONS

1. Cookoffs must be sponsored by a "not-for-profit" group, usually to benefit a worthwhile public cause. Cookoffs must not give prizes of cash or of high monetary value unless prior approval is granted by the Tolbert President. The State, Regional and International Cookoffs may give expense money to teams who attend OTICCC.
2. A minimum of fifteen (15) cooks are required to be present and cooking.
3. Cookoffs must be open to at least fifty cooks. State, Regional and International Championships should be unlimited as to the number of cook entries.
4. There is no cookoff fee, but the Cookoff Chairman is responsible for the supplies needed to put on a sanctioned cookoff.

C. COOKOFF RULES

1. Chili competition must be judged using the current Tolbert Secret Judging System as stated in this document in section II.
2. The Cookoff Chairman schedules the date, location, categories, turn in times, entry fees, choice of charity and any other prominent information of the cookoff to be held. This information must be given to the Tolbert Coordinator no less than forty (40) days prior to the date of the cookoff. It is advisable for Cookoff Chairman of new cookoffs to contact the Tolbert Coordinator at least two (2) months prior scheduling the event to hopefully avoid having two Tolbert cookoffs in the same area on the same date. Cookoffs that are regularly scheduled for the same weekend each year must confirm their cookoff dates and information in the same time frame.
3. The Cookoff Chairman is responsible for the site preparation, trophies (or certificates), judging sheets for all categories, judging palette cleansers, spoons (and other utensils as needed for other categories) for judging, and coordinates with the Referee concerning judging cups and lids. The Cookoff Chairman will work with the Tolbert Coordinator to recruit a Referee for the cookoff. The Cookoff Chairman must coordinate with the Referee to ensure all the necessary judging supplies and forms will be available, arrange to have judges available and determine the person in charge of other categories of competition. The Cookoff Chairman will make the decisions for judging the other categories and the Referee makes the decisions concerning the chili judging. Unresolved issues should be referred to the Rules Committee for a final decision on rule interpretations and the Cookoff Chairman must accept the decision. Both are encouraged to consult with others on problems that may occur.
4. The duty of the Referee is to see that the Tolbert rules are complied with, make decisions concerning rule questions, offer advice and to assure the cookoff is properly run. The Referee is responsible for assuring the cookoff winners are recorded during announcements and sending the cookoff paperwork to the Tally Master as outlined in rule V.D.2. The Referee should have a Head or Assistant Judge to help with the chili judging process and recruit and train Table Monitors as needed. The Referee may, but not be required to assist the Cookoff Chairman with judging the other categories.

D. FINAL PAPERWORK NECESSARY FOR COOKOFF TO BE SANCTIONED

1. Following announcements the Official Tally Sheet listing the top ten (10) chili winners with name and address information completed.
2. The top three (3) chili winners at State, Men's & Women's Championships residing in that State must be reported.
3. The Referee is responsible for sending a copy of the Official Tally Sheet and copies of the Cooks Registration forms to the Son of a Gap and Tally Master within a week after the cookoff. A list of the winners of other competitions may be sent to the Son of a Gap to be included with the publication of winners for the event. The completed forms may be scanned and e-mailed. There is no charge to have your Cookoff Winners recorded.
4. If the paperwork is not completed by the cookoff chairman the day of the cookoff, the Chairman or Head Judge must send the paperwork as listed in line 3 to the Referee of the day within a week after cookoff. The Referee will forward the files to the Tally Master and Son of a Gap after it has been reviewed.

V. OTICCC WEEK SPECIFIC RULES AND PROCEDURES

A. COOKS RULES AT OTICCC

- 1. NO COOK MAY PARTICIPATE IN ANOTHER CHILI CHAMPIONSHIP ON THE SAME DAY. BREAKING THIS RULE WILL RESULT IN A LIFETIME BAN FROM COMPETING AT OTICCC.
2. All the rules for judging chili followed during the regular chili year apply during the OTICCC cookoff unless otherwise noted below.

B. ENTRY ONTO THE OTICCC COOKOFF SITE

1. A list of qualified Cooks will be kept at the gate. Other lists of Event Chairmen, Sponsors, Special Guests, Vendors, and Bands eligible for free armbands will be maintained at the entry gate. Judges must pay the gate fee.
2. Qualified Cooks who have a history of participation in Tolbert events are listed separately from Cooks who qualify for OTICCC by placing at CASI or ICS events. Those NOT on the "Tolbert" list are NOT eligible for free armbands unless they cook at OTICCC. To receive free armbands, they must sign a form acknowledging they will be participating in the OTICCC or owe the cookoff the entry fee. Failure to cook at OTICCC after receiving free armbands will result in a Lifetime Ban from receiving a free armband until their debt is paid.
3. Qualified Cooks who will be cooking at OTICCC are eligible for two (2) free armbands per household.
4. Any person already eligible to receive a free armband(s) who also enter any BBQ categories, are not eligible to receive more than 2 armbands per household.

C. QUALIFIED COOKS REGISTRATION AT OTICCC

1. Registration will be located under the pavilion. See the Event Scheduled for their scheduled openings times. A report listing all the qualified Cooks will be used for registration. All Cooks must present their photo ID to register to cook. To speed up the process of receiving your cup on Saturday morning, please register prior to Saturday morning, see the Schedule of Events for day and times.
2. Cooks must attend the Saturday morning Cooks Meeting, see the Schedule of Events for the time. After the meeting cups will be distributed. Lists will have been created of the registered cooks on Thursday and Friday. The Cooks will present their photo ID to be verified, initial the report and be given a cup and lid. They must sign the ticket on the cup before leaving the table.

D. SPECIAL RULES FOR COOKING AT OTICCC

1. Judging cups will be identical 32 (thirty-two) ounces with numbered tickets unique to the cookoff.
2. Turn in is at High Noon on Saturday.

E. VERY LAST CHANCE CHILI QUALIFICATION FOR OTICCC

1. The top ten (10) winners at the Very Last Chance Cookoff is held during the week prior to the Championship. Only cooks not qualified prior to the OTICCC are eligible to enter. A photo ID is required to register and pick up their cups. See the Event Scheduled for registration and turn in times.
2. As the winners are announced, the Cook must present their photo ID to the Registration Chairman (or their designee) to have their name added to the official OTICCC registration records. Very Last Chance qualifiers are not awarded points or eligible for free armbands.

F. OTICCC JUDGING PROCEDURE

1. It is not permissible for Cooks competing in the Championship to judge on any level.
2. A tie-breaking panel of three (3) judges must be used to break ties for the top two (2) places and tenth (10th) place on the final judging table. Ties among the other places shall be assigned places by the computer Tally Program.

G. OTICCC TURNING IN CHILI

1. Official chili turn-in by the Cook is at the pavilion beginning at High Noon until the initial line of cooks has turned their chili. If a cook is unable to bring their cup to the pavilion, they must contact the Referee prior to Noon.
2. Cooks will receive a coupon for a free Cookoff T-shirt and Goodie Bag after turning in their cup of chili.

H. OTICCC WINNER ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Chili announcements start with the Final Table winners in reverse order.
2. Each winner must check in with the Registration Chairman (or their designee) to officially register their win.
3. If a Cook must leave before announcements, they must give their ticket and address information to the Referee. A winning cook must arrange to have their trophy delivered.
4. When announcing the Final Table through second (2nd) place winning numbers, if the Cook does not come to the stage within five (5) minutes, the Announcer will proceed to announce the next winning ticket. When the first (1st) place winning ticket is announced, the Winner has ten (10) minutes to present the matching ticket to the Announcer. During the ten (10) minutes, the Announcer will repeat the number numerous times along with any other missing unmatched tickets. If the first (1st) place Winner does not appear within the allotted ten (10) minute period, the second (2nd) place Winner will be declared the Champion for the year and second (2nd) place will be unawarded. Third (3rd) through tenth (10th) places will remain as awarded.
5. The Registration Chairman (or their designee) is responsible for creating a list (or photo of the list) of the winners for the Tally Master, OTICCC President and the Son of a Gap editor.

I. QUALIFICATION AT OTICCC FOR THE NEW CHILI YEAR

1. OTICCC champion is automatically qualified for life.
2. The second (2nd) thru tenth (10th) place Chili winners are qualified for the following year's championship.
